Read job advertisements, may it be in newspapers or online job portals. Take note of the job descriptions. This will give you an idea if you are a good fit for the job. Doing so will also help you visualize how it is to work for the company.

Apply as soon as you find your desired job or company. Refine and submit your resume. Make sure that it fits the job that you are applying for. You may opt to walk in or directly send it to the recruiter online. If you found the job ad on a job portal, it is better if you create an account and subscribe to their portal so you could easily track your application's progress and get regular updates.
